Vision

To evolve a humane learning society through advancement of knowledge

Mission

To become a centre of excellence in educational policy, planning and management by promoting advanced level teaching, research and capacity building in national and global contexts

The National Institute of Educational Planning and Administration

The National Institute of Educational Planning and Administration (NIEPA) has its origin dating back to 1962 when the UNESCO established the Asian Regional Centre for Educational Planners and Administrators. This became the Asian Institute of Educational Planning and Administration (AIEPA) in 1965. Subsequently, with increasing role and functions in capacity building, research and professional support services to the state governments, this institution became National Institute of Educational Planning and Administration (NIEPA) in 1979. In recognition of the pioneering work done by the organization in the field of educational planning and administration, the NIEPA was conferred the status of a (deemed to be) University in August 2006 by the University Grants Commission. The NIEPA is fully funded by the Ministry of Education, Government of India.

Message from the Vice-Chancellor

The National Institute of Educational Planning and Administration (NIEPA), established by the Ministry of Education, Government of India, is a premier national organization dealing with capacity building and research in planning and management of education. Recently, NIEPA has been accredited with Grade “A” by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC).

The NIEPA comprises of eight Academic Departments and two Centres. It has an outstanding multi-disciplinary faculty and a library which is well stocked with a large number of books, national and international journals and official documents in the area of educational planning and administration.

The NIEPA offers Full-time PhD and Part time PhD Programme in educational policy, planning and administration from broader multi - disciplinary perspectives. The research programmes of NIEPA cover all levels and types of education from both national and international development perspectives.

The NIEPA has extensive collaborative arrangements with reputed universities and institutions, within and outside India. These include the International Institute for Educational Planning (IIEP, Paris), the UNESCO, UNICEF, UNDP, The World Bank, other national institutions, international development agencies, and universities in India and abroad. Students thereby get the opportunity to interact with scholars visiting from various public universities and institutions from across the world.

We look forward to receiving young and bright scholars at the NIEPA. Our scholars are committed to the pursuit of knowledge and excellence in education through research at the PhD level. I am sure NIEPA as a prestigious institution will be of choice for furtherance of your ideas and scholarship.

1. About the National Institute of Educational Planning and Administration

The NIEPA is engaged in high level academic research and teaching in the areas of education development policy making, planning and administration. Established in 1962 as a training arm of the UNESCO in Asia, the NIEPA today is a full-fledged (deemed to be) University. It is home to India's premier thinking on education and development policy, and its planning and implementation. Further, it provides training support to educational offices in India, and abroad.

Its unique mix of knowledge through research, capacity building and training activities makes it sought after destination for researchers. The institutional atmosphere of the NIEPA is rich with academic and co-curricular activities - attracting scholars and practitioners of education from around the world. Our research scholars participate in most deliberations and begin thinking of practical policy agendas, even as they pursue their academic lives.

The academic life is rich with various academic and co-curricular activities. This includes cultural and sports events and lectures by distinguished academics and intellectuals.

In recognition of its academic and institutional excellence, the NAAC has recently awarded an "A" Grade to the university (with the CGPA score of 3.05).

Faculty

The NIEPA has a highly qualified faculty that includes specialization across a range of disciplines. This makes NIEPA a truly multi-disciplinary educational institution with proficiency across various disciplines of the social sciences and allied disciplines. The faculty also have a rich national and international academic and professional experience, and have high level publications on various themes and sub-sectors of education. Faculty publications are cited on leading global research citation indices such as SCOPUS. The Oxford University Press, Springer, Bloomsbury, Routledge (Taylor and Francis Group) are some of the leading publishing houses from which our faculty publish. NIEPA research scholars have also published in reputed national and international journals.

The NIEPA publishes two reputed journals managed by faculty-Journal of Educational Planning and Administration (JEPA) (in English) and Pariprekshya (in Hindi).

NIEPA Library and Documentation

The NIEPA maintains a state-of-the-art library. This caters to the needs of the scholars interested in working in the area of educational policy, planning and administration and adopts to multi-disciplinary perspectives. The library provides efficient services to facilitate the faculty, researchers, administrators, policy makers and participants of its capacity building programmes in their academic endeavours. NIEPA library has a collection of more than 60,000 books. It regularly subscribes to about 240 Indian and foreign journals and periodicals. The library is fully computerized and it provides referencing services through Internet, ERIC and DELNET based virtual library mode.

The NIEPA's Documentation Centre has a wide and rich collection of more than 18,500 volumes on educational planning and administration. The Documentation Centre offers a unique collection of official reports, documents and other government publications such as state gazetteers, state census reports, world handbooks, educational surveys, five-year plans amongst others. It also holds a rich collection of dissertations of the Institute's Post Graduate Diploma Course in Educational Planning and Administration (PGDEPA) and International Diploma Course in Educational Planning and Administration (IDEPA). The NIEPA also has Digital Archives with nearly 10,000 documents. The NIEPA is well equipped in terms of basic infrastructure to promote teaching and research. It has modern classrooms, seminar halls and state of the art ICT labs with internet connectivity.
