The JOURNAL is a peer reviewed and a professional forum to which both researchers from broader social science disciplines and practitioners in educational policy and planning around the world are invited to share their research in the area of educational policy, planning, administration and development. The subject areas covered include a variety of socio-economic, political, and managerial dimensions of educational planning and development in developing as well as developed countries. It covers international, national and sub-national issues relating to educational policy, planning and development analysed from disciplinary as well as inter-disciplinary perspectives.

Each issue of the journal contains 3-4 original research articles, research notes/commentary/communication, abstract of recently awarded PhD dissertation on education and book reviews. The journal invites articles (two hard copies and an electronic version in MS Word) from researchers around the world for consideration for publication in the journal. Standard Styles and References to be used in the article may be seen at our website link www.niepa.ac.in/Pub_Jepa.aspx under "Notes for Contributors".

For book reviews, publisher may send two copies of recent publication to the editor.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Articles submitted for the Journal should be original contributions and should not be under consideration for any other publication at the same time; if an article is under consideration by another publication, authors should clearly indicate this at the time of submission.

Articles typed in double space on A4 size paper should be submitted by e-mail (jepa@niepa.ac.in). They also have to be accompanied by hard copy by mail; and on acceptance of the paper for publication, an electronic version (MS Word) has to be sent to the Editor of the Journal. Tables, Graphs, Figures and Pictures should be sent along with original open/Excel Files. While preparing them, it may be kept in mind that the final print is in Black Colour only.

Author's name, affiliation, address (including e-mail address), acknowledgement, etc., should appear only on a separate cover page.

Six Key Words along with JEL Classification Codes may be listed for indexing/abstracting in JEL, along with a 100-word abstract of the paper.

The authors are entitled to 20 off-prints free of cost and a copy of the issue in which their article appears.

Authors are suggested to follow standard styles in the preparation of the manuscripts.

- Simple references without accompanying comments should be inserted in the text in parentheses, with the name of the author, year of publication and page numbers, e.g., (Naik, 1972, pp. 23-25
- References with comments should appear as notes, denoted by a superscript number in the text; but references in the foot-notes will be in the same style as above.
- All references should be alphabetically arranged at the end of the text. Style should follow: author's name, forename/ initials, date of publication in parentheses, title of publication (italicized in case of a book, and in double quotations in case of an article, and the source, Journal or book underlined or italicized), place of publication, publisher, page numbers, and any other additional information. Journal articles should contain complete information regarding volume number, issue number, date, etc. A few examples are as follows:

Naik, J.P. (1972): Education Commission and After. New Delhi: Allied.

Majumdar, Tapas (1987): "The Role of the Finance Commission", Journal of Educational Planning and Administration, 1 (3&4), July-October, pp. 1-11.

Panchamukhi, P.R. (1982): "Educational Finances in a Federal Framework", Seminar on Mobilisation of Additional Resources for Education. New Delhi: National Institute of Educational Planning and Administration (mimeo).

Reiff, Hans (1986): "Perspective Planning in Education: An International View", in Moonis Raza (ed.) Educational Planning: A Long Term Perspective, New Delhi: Concept, for the National Institute of Educational Planning and Administration, pp. 65-91
